If you object to the relief requested you must respond in writing. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, you must file your response electronically at <https://ecf.txsb.uscourts.gov/> within thirty (30) days from the date this objection was filed. Otherwise, the Court may treat the Objection as unopposed and sustain the relief requested.

Represented parties should act through their attorney.

TO THE HONORABLE MARVIN ISGUR, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

David Dunn (“Administrator”), as Plan Administrator of Fieldwood Energy III LLC, Fieldwood Energy Offshore LLC, Fieldwood Energy Inc., GOM Shelf LLC and FW GOM Pipeline, Inc., Debtors (the “Post-Effective Date Debtors”) files this Plan Administrator’s Objection to HCC International Insurance Company PLC’s Proof of Claim No. 652 (the “Objection”) and in support thereof respectfully represents as follows:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The Administrator seeks entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”) disallowing Proof of Claim No. 652 (the “Subject Claim”) pursuant to Sections 105(a), 502(a), 502(b), and 502(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007, Rules 3007-1 and 9013-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Local Rules”), and the Procedures for Complex Chapter 11 Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the “Complex Case Procedures”) in its entirety because the Subject Claim is unenforceable against the Post-Effective Date Debtors.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157. The Administrator confirms his consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Objection to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are Sections 105(a), 502(a), 502(b), and 502(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007, Rules 3007-1 and 9013-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Local Rules”), and the Procedures for Complex Chapter 11 Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the “Complex Case Procedures”).

BACKGROUND

A. The Chapter 11 Case

4. On August 3, 2020 and August 4, 2020 (as applicable, the “Petition Date”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Case”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Court”).

5. On June 25, 2021, the Court entered the Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law, and Order (I) Confirming Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1751] (the “Confirmation Order”) confirming, as modified therein, the Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 1742] (including any exhibits and schedules thereto and as may be further amended, supplemented, or modified, including at Docket No. 2008, the “Confirmed Plan”).

6. On August 27, 2021, the Debtors filed that certain Notice of (I) Entry of Order

Confirming Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Occurrence of Effective Date [Docket No. 2016], setting forth that, inter alia, the Effective Date occurred on August 27, 2021 (the “Effective Date”).

B. Plan Administrator

7. On the Effective Date, David Dunn of Province, Inc. was appointed to serve as the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Confirmed Plan. See Confirmed Plan § 5.9(b).

8. The Plan Administrator is responsible, to the extent not otherwise provided for in the Confirmed Plan, for carrying out and implementing all provisions of the Confirmed Plan on behalf of the Debtors and Post-Effective Date Debtors, including reviewing and reconciling all Claims asserted against the Debtors (including, but not limited to, Administrative Expense Claims, Other Secured Claims, Class 6A Unsecured Trade Claims, and Class 6B General Unsecured Claims) and making distributions on account of Allowed Claims. As more fully set forth therein, section 5.9(c) of the Confirmed Plan vests the Plan Administrator with “all the rights, powers, authority, and duties on behalf of each of the Debtors and [the] Post-Effective Date Debtors [other than the Post-Effective Date FEW I Subsidiaries pursuant to section 5.9(a) of the Confirmed Plan]...to carry out and implement all provisions of the [Confirmed] Plan.” In short, the Plan Administrator has been tasked with: (i) controlling and effectuating the Claims reconciliation process; (ii) settling or compromising any Disputed Claims (as defined in the Confirmed Plan); and (iii) administering and adjusting the Debtors’ claims register to reflect any such settlements and compromises.

C. Bar Dates

9. On October 13, 2020, the Debtors filed their Statements of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities [Docket Nos. 430 – 454].

10. On October 14, 2020, the Court entered the Order (I) Establishing Deadline to File Proofs of Claim and (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 466] (the “Bar Date Order”), establishing certain dates and deadlines (each a “Bar Date”) for filing proofs of claims in these chapter 11 cases. The Bar Date Order established: (a) November 25, 2020, as the Bar Date for all non-governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim, and (b) February 1, 2021, as the Bar Date for all governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim.

11. Section 7.5 of the Confirmed Plan provides, “[a]ny objections to a Claim shall be filed on or before the date that is the later of (a) 180 days after the Effective Date and (b) such later date as may be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing, upon a motion by the Post-Effective Date Debtors, as such deadline may be extended from time to time.” Confirmed Plan § 7.5. Accordingly, the deadline to object to Claims (the “Claims Objection Deadline”) was originally February 23, 2022, which was extended to August 22, 2022 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2410] entered on March 16, 2022. The Claims Objection Deadline was further extended to February 18, 2023 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2649] entered September 1, 2022. Finally, the Claims Objection Deadline was further extended to August 17, 2023 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2770] entered March 16, 2023.

D. HCC International Insurance Company PLC

12. On November 24, 2020, the HCC International Insurance Company PLC (“HCCI”) filed Proof of Claim No. 652 against Debtor, Fieldwood Energy LLC (“FE”). Claim No. 652 asserts an unsecured claim in the amount of $101,400,000.00. The Subject Claim asserts that pre-petition Debtors executed a General Indemnity Agreement and HCCI issued two bonds, ES00001441 and BS/MA/00089, the penalty amounts of which add up to $100,000,000.00 (the “Bonds”). The Subject Claim also asserts that the Debtor has “failed to pay premiums on the Bonds in the amount of $700,000.00.” The Subject Claim also asserts that HCCI has rights against the Debtor under a Participation Agreement entered into between HCCI and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch (“DB”), pursuant to which HCCI allegedly purchased participation in Standby Letter of Credit No. 839BGC1600430 issued to Apache Corporation by DB pursuant to a Continuing Agreement for Standby Letters of Credit between Debtor and DB. The Subject Claim asserts that Debtor has failed to pay “certain premiums or charges” related to Standby Letter of Credit No. 839BGC1600430 which “upon information and belief, total $700,000.00.” The “Debtor and each of the Fieldwood Entities” is obligated to:

Indemnify HCCI for any liabilities, losses, premiums, claims, damages, extra-contractual damages court costs and expenses, attorney’s fees, consultant fees, interest, and all other costs and expenses of HCCI arising from or related to any aspect of the Bonds or the enforcement of HCCI’s rights under the Indemnity Agreement or the Bonds.

Addendum to Subject Claim at p. 2.

13. The Subject Claim attaches a document titled General Indemnity Agreement.

14. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is the Declaration of David Dunn in Support of the Plan Administrator’s Objection to HCC International Insurance Company PLC’s Proof of Claim No. 652 (the “Declaration”).

ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITY

15. Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, as follows: “[a] claim or interest, proof of which is filed under § 501 of [the Bankruptcy Code], is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502.

16. As set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a properly executed and filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the claim under Section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Tran, 351 B.R. 440, 444 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2006), aff'd, 369 B.R. 312 (S.D. Tex. 2007) (holding that a properly filed proof of claim is prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim). A proof of claim loses the presumption of prima facie validity under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) if an objecting party refutes at least one of the allegations that are essential to the claim's legal sufficiency. See In re Fidelity Holding Co., Ltd., 837 F.2d 696, 698 (5th Cir. 1988) (holding "If, however, evidence rebutting the claim is brought forth, then the claimant must produce additional evidence to 'prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence.'"). Once such an allegation is refuted, the burden reverts to the claimant to prove the validity of its claim by a preponderance of the evidence. See id. Despite this shifting burden during the claim objection process, "the ultimate burden of proof always lies with the claimant." Id.

- a. The portion of the Subject Claim related to the Bonds is contingent and should be disallowed.

17. Section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that:

[T]he court shall disallow any claim for reimbursement or contribution of an entity that is liable with the debtor on or has secured the claim of a creditor, to the extent that...such claim for reimbursement or contribution is contingent as of the time of allowance or disallowance of such claim for reimbursement or contribution[.]

11 U.S.C. § 502(e)(1)(B).

18. Contingent claims should thus be disallowed if they meet the following factors: (i) the claim is for reimbursement or contribution, (ii) the claim is asserted by an entity that is liable with the debtor on an underlying claim, and (iii) the claim is contingent at the time of its allowance or disallowance. See In re Sorenson v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc.), 146 B.R. 92, 95-96 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)(articulating three-part test); In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. 611, 616-17 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2004)(analyzing whether reimbursement claim was contingent, then assessing whether “the responding parties are ‘liable with the debtor’”).

19. If HCCI were able to establish that FE had reimbursement obligations pursuant to certain agreements, then any claim HCCI may have in the future against FE under the Bonds, as identified in the Subject Claim, would be for reimbursement or contribution. “Courts have consistently held that ‘the concept of reimbursement includes indemnity.’” In re Falcon V, L.L.C., 620 B.R. 256, 269-70 (Bankr. M.D. La. 2020)(finding that surety that issued bonds was not entitled to claim pursuant to Section 502(e)(1)(B) since it was a contingent claim); In re RNI Wind Down Corp., 369 B.R. 174, 181-82 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007)(quoting In re Vectrix Bus. Solutions, Inc., 2005 WL 3244199, at *3 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2005)). “Traditionally, when a surety is compelled to pay debts for its principal, the surety is deemed entitled to reimbursement even without a contractual promise.” In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 619.

20. Second, the claim must be asserted by an entity that is liable with the debtor on an underlying claim. In order for Section 502(e) to apply, “[t]here must exist...a shared liability to the same party on the same claim.” In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. 611, 616-17 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2004). “[T]he co-liability requirement is to be interpreted to require a finding that the causes of action in the underlying lawsuit assert claims upon which, if proven, the debtor could be liable but for the automatic stay.” In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 146 B.R. 92, 95 (S.D.N.Y. 1992). “Finally, the debtor’s co-liability with the claimant is implicit in an indemnity arrangement...where the arrangement between a debtor and a claimant is one of a surety who has issued bonds for which the obligor (debtor) has agreed to indemnify it.” In re Alta Mesa Resources, Inc., et al., 2022 Bankr. LEXIS 3649, *11 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. December 28, 2022). The existence of a direct claim by the third party against the debtor does not preclude the application of Section 502(e)(1)(B). In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 616-17. If Debtors have any liability with respect to the Bonds or General Indemnity Agreement, then HCCI would be co-liaible with Debtors. Accordingly, the Subject Claim satisfies the second element of the three-part test.

21. Third, the Subject Claim remains contingent. In the Tri-Union Dev. Corp. case, the Court noted that “contingent” in under Section 502(e) this context means “unfunded” and that claims remain “contingent” for purposes of Bankruptcy Code § 502(e)(1)(B) until the co-debtor has paid the creditor. In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 616-17. The portion of the Subject Claim related to the penalty amount of the Bonds requires the occurrence of an event before FE could be liable for any such obligation, i.e., a payment on account of a bond, which HCCI has not shown to have occurred. HCCI has not presented any evidence or documentation that it paid any amount of the Subject Claim due to a demand on the Bonds. Therefore, the Subject Claim is contingent because it is based upon a yet to occur future event. See Tri-Union, 314 B.R. at 616. (“[C]laims remain ‘contingent’ for purposes of Bankruptcy Code § 502(e)(1)(B) until the co-debtor has paid the creditor.”). Damages may arise if, and only if, HCCI makes a payment under the Bonds. For these reasons, the contingent portion of the Subject Claim related to penalty amounts under the Bonds should be disallowed under Section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

22. On December 28, 2022, this Court ruled, in a similar factual situation involving the surety bond claims of U.S. Specialty Insurance Company (“USSIC”), that USSIC’s claims “must be dismissed (i) as contingent under § 502(e)(1)(B) and (ii) because USSIC cannot demonstrate it suffered any current damages as a result of the debtors’ failure to provide cash collateral.” In re Alta Mesa Res., 2022 Bankr. LEXIS 3649, *7 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 28, 2022). Alta Mesa involved three proofs of claim filed by USSIC against the debtors for surety bonds issued on behalf of Alta Mesa in favor of various government entities, for obligations owed by debtors. Id. at *3. As in this case, USSIC provided no evidence that it made any payments to the bond obligees. See id. at *5. The USSIC proofs of claim indicated that the claim amounts “mirror[ed] the total penalty amount of all the issued bonds based on Exhibit A, filed as an attachment to the proofs of claim.” Id. The Court found that USSIC’s claims should be disallowed, and explained that “[i]f the underlying obligation is a contingent claim for which the debtor is co-liable with the claimant, it is disallowed,” and that a “claim for indemnification is generally considered contingent unless the claimant has actually paid the third party.” Id. at *10-*11. Furthermore, the Court found that USSIC could not prove damages under Texas breach of contract law, reasoning that “[t]he lacking element here is actual, current damages sustained by USSIC as a result of the debtors’ failure to provide cash collateral.” Id. at *13-*14. Here, HCCI’s argument that “HCCI made demand on the Debtor for cash collateral for the outstanding amount of the Bonds” and that “Debtor failed to provide the required cash collateral and is therefore in default of its obligations under the Indemnity Agreement” is therefore also unavailing.

23. Based on the above, the portion of the Subject Claim related to the penalty amounts of the Bonds is contingent and should be disallowed.

24. Additionally, the Asset Purchase Agreement entered into in connection with the sales of Debtors’ assets all contain provisions stating “[a]s of the Closing or promptly thereafter (and in any case within ten (10) Business Days of Closing), Buyer and/or Buyer 2, as applicable, will have lease bonds, area-wide bonds and surety bonds or insurance policies to the extent required by and in accordance with the requirements of such Governmental Authorities as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion.” Docket No. 2013 at p. 128. To the extent the buyers have obtained replacements for any bonds on which the Subject Claims are based, Hanover’s claim under such bonds will not mature.

b. The Subject Claim is unenforceable against FE and FE's property.

25. 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1) provides that:

if such objection to a claim is made, the court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim in lawful currency of the United States as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount, except to the extent that—

- (1) such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and other property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.

11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

26. Administrator objects to the Subject Claim under § 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code on the basis that the Subject Claim is unenforceable against FE and FE's property. The General Indemnity Agreement attached to the Subject Claim does not support how FE is liable or potentially liable to HCCI. The Addendum to the Subject Claim alleges without support that FE is liable to HCCI for, among other things, (i) $100,000,000 for failing to provide cash collateral under the Bonds, (ii) $1,400,000 for failing to pay premiums on the Bonds, and (iii) $700,000 for failing to pay premiums or charges related to Standby Letter of Credit No. 839BGC1600430. However, the face amount of the Subject Claim is only $101,400,000. The Subject Claim does not attach the Bonds, or any documentation relating to the allegedly missed premiums on the Bonds or Standby Letter of Credit No. 839BGC1600430. HCCI has not asserted a valid claim under Rule 3001(a) because there is no information or documentation to identify what obligations, if any FE may be liable for. Nor is there information or documentation concerning how HCCI calculated its $101,400,000 claim amount, and thus, even if it were enforceable against FE, the Subject Claim does not provide sufficient evidence to determine the amount of the claim.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

27. This Objection is limited to the grounds stated herein. Accordingly, it is without prejudice to the rights of the Administrator to object to any claim on any ground whatsoever. The Administrator expressly reserves all further substantive or procedural objections. Nothing contained herein or any actions taken pursuant to such relief is intended or should be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against the Administrator; (b) a waiver of the Administrator's right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Objection or any order granting the relief requested by this Objection; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) a waiver of the Administrator's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

WHEREFORE, the Administrator respectfully requests that the Court enter the Proposed Order granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
